Royal Society for Asian Affairs & SOAS Schools' Day for Sixth Formers

The aim is to introduce students to speakers, subjects and concepts they may not have previously experienced as part of their curriculum and which will, we hope, inspire them. The conference is open to all in the 16-19 age-group, although students interested in pursuing geography, law, religion, international affairs, social sciences or Asian language pathways may find it particularly relevant. The day is free and lunch is provided.

Applications for Pathways to Law (London) and Pathways to Banking and Finance are open. Both programmes run from the start of Year 12 until March/April of Year 13 (only Year 12 students eligible).

Pathways to Law (London):

Pathways to Law (London) runs at LSE and Queen Mary University of London. The programme aims to give students the information, advice and guidance they need to succeed in a career in Law through a regular, engaging programme of activities including lectures, seminars, mock trials, law in practice sessions and university advice sessions. Students can also to apply for a work experience placement, an undergraduate law mentor and a National Conference in the summer.

Pathways to Banking and Finance:

Pathways to Banking and Finance is a programme run at LSE for students interested in studying finance or a career in the financial sector. Modelled on the format of the successful Pathways to Law programme, students will be provided with information, advice and guidance needed to succeed in a career in financial services and will attend academic sessions and university support activities. Students can also apply for an insight programme at one of London's leading financial service providers, an undergraduate mentor and a National Conference in the summer.

Yale Model United Nations 50

Yale

Yale Model United Nations is a four-day international relations simulation for high school students, held on Yale University's campus in New Haven. At YMUN, delegates from around the world interact with one another through debate and diplomacy to solve complex challenges facing the world today.

Delegates will have the opportunity to take on roles of UN representatives, policymakers, and important figures at our conference and learn about the inner workings of global politics and problem-solving. By engaging in topics concerning international and national security, political and economic development, human rights, sustainability, and more, delegates learn to navigate the intricacies of international negotiation and teamwork, adopt new perspectives, and develop comprehensive resolutions on pressing global issues.

Information session followed by a live Q&A on Sunday, June 25, 2023 at 2PM EST

Deadline: 15th
October 2023
